

SAMPLE WELCOME TO OUR SMALL GROUP EMAIL

Contact all members of your group to both welcome them to the group and remind them of when the group will be meeting. The easiest way to contact your group is through email. Here is a sample email to use to communicate to your group:

Hi _____,

I'm so glad that you decided to join our small group! It is my hope that our group walks away from our time together having built stronger friendships, learned more about ourselves, and most importantly, learned more about God's purpose for our life.

As a reminder, our first small group gather will be on:

Day: _____

Time: _____

Address: _____

Should you get lost on the way, feel free to call me at (____) - ____ - ____

See you soon!
