BOTTOM LINE

FOCUS on what you can see.

BLOWING LIKE THE WIND

WHAT YOU NEED: Straw, ping-pong ball

WHAT YOU DO:

- Give each child a straw and a ping pong ball.
- Have him/her crawl on their hands and knees and blow air through the straw to move the ball.
- See how far they can blow the ball from one spot in the house to another.

WHAT YOU SAY:

"What made the ping-pong ball move? (air, breath). Even though we couldn't see the air, we could see the effect of the air. Can you think of anything you can't see, but you know it is there? (Give kids a moment to respond). What about the wind? We can't see wind, but when we [Bottom Line] FOCUS on what we can see, like trees swaying or kites flying or flags flapping, we know the wind is there.

READ: Romans 1:20 and say "In these verses, Paul tells us to [Bottom Line] FOCUS on what we can see, like mountains, the sky, stars, animals, and people. Focusing on what we CAN see in creation points us to a God we CAN'T see."
