04

The lies that porn tells us are all part of a counter-narrative we need to reject.

Summary

The ups and downs of an actual relationship are far more rich than the superficial offering of porn. It is crucial that we guard our characters and pursue virtue. These means having wise personal boundaries, relying on the Holy Spirit, and being in community with people who can keep us accountable. But overcoming sexual sin is hard and we often fail. Never forget that God loves you, no matter how often you repeat the same sins. He never gives up on you or stops being your advocate.

Reflect, Discuss, and Share

01 God's vision for sexuality can easily seem restrictive because it limits our sexual choices.

How does God's plan for sex actually lead to "satisfaction, purpose, and freedom"?

Discuss!

02 In 1 Cor 10:5, Paul says that Christians are to "take every thought captive to obey Christ."

What does taking our thoughts captive look like day to day, and what is the danger of not doing so?

Think about this!

03 Describe a time when you were in a pattern of sin (of any kind) that you believed you could never overcome.

Tell how God set you free.

Be Vulnerable!

"God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it."

1 Cor. 10:13

How aware is your church of the problem of porn? Identify a way you can encourage your church body toward accountability in this area.
